Grievance Procedure – Employment

This grievance procedure shall apply to employees with alleged discriminatory act(s) under the provisions of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and/or the Americans with Disabilities Act:

- A. The aggrieved individual shall file a written complaint, stating the specific facts of his or her grievance and the alleged discriminatory act, with the compliance officer;
- B. The compliance officer shall make all reasonable efforts to resolve the matter informally by having the aggrieved individual review the complaint with his or her immediate supervisor;
- C. The immediate supervisor shall render a determination to the aggrieved individual within fifteen (15) working days after hearing the complaint. If such complaint is not satisfactorily resolved at this stage, the aggrieved individual may proceed to the next stage;
- D. Within fifteen (15) working days after a determination has been made at the preceding stage, the aggrieved individual may present the complaint in writing to the compliance officer for review and determination;
- E. The compliance officer shall immediately notify the individual, immediate supervisor, and the principal in the case to submit written statements to him or her within fifteen (15) days setting forth the specific nature of the complaint, the facts relating thereto, and the determinations previously rendered;
- F. The compliance officer shall notify all parties concerned in the case of the time and place when an informal hearing will be held where the parties may appear and present oral and written statements supplementing their position in the case and the manner in which the hearing will be conducted. Such hearing shall be held within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the written statements;
- G. The compliance officer shall render a determination within fifteen (15) working days after the written statements have been presented to him or her, or fifteen (15) days after the completion of the informal hearing. The compliance officer will provide a written copy of his or her determination to all parties;
- H. The aggrieved individual may appeal the determination of the compliance officer to the board within fifteen (15) working days of the receipt of the compliance officer's determination. The appeal shall be in writing and attached to copies of the original complaint, the minutes of the formal hearing, and the written determination of the compliance officer. The board may, in its discretion, convene a hearing at which the parties may present additional testimony and argument.
- I. Within 30 days of the filing of appeal, the board shall provide both parties with a written decision.
- J. If the complaint has not been satisfactorily resolved in the above stages, the aggrieved individual may appeal in writing directly to the Office of Civil Rights.

- A. The parent or guardian of a student who believes the student has a valid basis for a grievance under Section 504, or the American Disabilities Act shall file a written complaint, stating the specific facts of his or her grievance and the alleged discriminatory act, with the compliance officer;
- B. The compliance officer shall make all reasonable efforts to resolve the matter informally by reviewing the grievance with appropriate staff which may include, but not be limited to, the principal, child study team staff and/or the classroom teacher(s);
- C. The compliance officer will investigate and document the complaint including dates of meetings, dispositions and date of dispositions. The compliance officer will provide a written reply to the aggrieved individual within fifteen working days;

This written grievance must be filed with the compliance officer within fifteen working days;
- E. The compliance officer will appoint a hearing officer within fifteen working days of the receipt of the written grievance. A hearing will be conducted within fifteen working days. The hearing officer will give the parent or guardian and the student a hearing relevant to the issues raised under the grievance. The parent or guardian and the student may, at their own expense, be assisted or represented by individuals of their choice, including legal counsel. The hearing officer will present a written decision to the compliance officer and aggrieved individual within fifteen working days of the hearing;
- F. The complainant may file a written appeal to the board if not satisfied with the hearing officer's decision. The board, through the chief school administrator, will provide a written disposition of the alleged grievance;
- G. The complainant may request mediation and due process according to law if unsatisfied with the written decision of the board.

Mediation and/or due process are available when disputes arise between the board and parents/guardians of students with or without a disability in regard to educational placement (use of this grievance procedure is not a prerequisite to mediation and/or due process.)

Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity Complaints

The purpose of this procedure is to give any district employee or candidate for employment the opportunity to appeal an alleged denial of equal employment opportunity in violation of state and federal laws and board policy 2224 Nondiscrimination/Affirmative Action, ensuring equal access to all categories of employment without regard to the candidate's race, color, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, affectional or sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status, pregnancy, domestic partnership status, familial status, liability for service in the Armed Forces of the United States, nationality, atypical hereditary cellular or blood trait of any individual, genetic information, or refusal to submit to a genetic test or make the results of a genetic test known, in employment or in educational opportunities. Further state and federal protection is extended on account of disabilities, social or economic status, pregnancy, childbirth, pregnancy-related disabilities, actual or potential parenthood, or family status.

This procedure is intended to facilitate an equitable and just resolution of a dispute at the most immediate level and should be implemented in an informal manner. All participants in the procedure will respect the confidentiality that this district accords to information about individual employees.

Every reasonable effort will be made to expedite the process in the interest of a prompt resolution. Time limits may, however, be extended with the consent of all parties.
